Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/775,046	Applicant(s) CHAVEZ ET AL
	Examiner Khoi H. Tran	Art Unit 3651

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, Species I, claims 1-6 in the reply filed on 06/03/2005 is acknowledged.

Double Patenting

2. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

3. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claim 1 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,694,221. This is a double patenting rejection.

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 3651

5. Claims 1, 2, and 4-6 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-6 of U.S. Patent No. 6,694,221. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because it is obvious that the claims from the US Patent No. '221 encompass the combination of the respective claimed invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1, 5, and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Teicher 5,728,999.

Teicher '999 discloses a supply dispensing apparatus per claimed invention. The apparatus comprises a cabinet having an authorized access door via a magnetic card. The apparatus comprises shelves for receiving supplies. The apparatus comprises a processor for allowing access to the supplies upon input of an authorized magnetic card. The processor keeps track of the supplies by means of weight sensors. The apparatus comprises means to communicate with at least one remote database.

7. Claims 1, 2, and 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Higham 5,905,653.

Higham '653 discloses a supply dispensing apparatus per claimed invention. The apparatus comprises a cabinet having plurality of authorized access doors. The apparatus comprises shelves/drawers for receiving supplies. The apparatus comprises a processor for allowing access to the supplies upon input of an authorized means. The processor keeps track of the supplies by means of weight sensors. The apparatus comprises means to communicate with at least one remote database.

8. Claims 1, 2, and 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wan et al. 6,539,281

Wan '281 discloses a supply dispensing apparatus for dispensing supplies from a cabinet per claimed invention. The cabinet comprises an enclosed space having an authorized access door. The cabinet comprises shelves for receiving the supplies. The apparatus comprises a processor for allowing access to the supplies upon input of an authorized identification (magnetic smart card). The processor also keeps track of the supplies by means of weight sensors (figures 1-7). The dispenser comprises at least one environmental sensor (i.e. camera) electrically connected to the processor. Said at least one environmental sensor operable to sense change in an environmental condition. The processor operates to change the programmable protocol in response to said changes. The dispenser comprises a remote data port for communicating with a remote database.
